I will try my best. But you've got to understand, that's a 10 mile round trip!

This very point had already been communicated with Shellia. Since Trish was intercepting comms, she should have known this. But if this pesky fact got in the way of her power tripping, over her double-dipping scheme (or any scheme to deprive me of honest service or an owed refund), then her gloating would have caused her to lose sight of it.

There's more. Upon one effort to get at least part way there, via the local transit service (CATS), the local transit director simply ignored CATS employee Mary Collins' interception, preventing that ride.

But Collins took it further than standing up a passenger, on a scheduled in advance, trip. She ensured that other buses went by the pick up point, during that scheduled time. They ordinarily, don't. Collins was driving home the point that there were plenty of rides available, in the vicinity, at the time. But not to me. Her interception to deprive me of honest services, was selective. Selective service deprivation was a pattern, among several people.

Who, pray tell was Collins? Collins had been the New Mexico Transit Authority (NMTA) director, through April, 2022.

Darla Gonzales, with La Casa Rides, likewise intercepted my scheduled in advance La Casa rides, to ensure selectively depriving me of honest services. La Casa, a health center, offers free rides to seniors. But selectively, not to me. Yes, I'm registered. In their system. Am a qualifying senior. Have been, for years. And La Casa is located essentially kitty corner to where I live. But no: Gonzales intercepts my scheduled in advance La Casa rides. This has gone on for years, and persists, despite long ago exposure of it.

For the particular trip to get to Plateau, La Casa's Gonzales would not have allowed any ride at all. CATS would have allowed a ride only within the city limits. But Plateau's office was further out, than that. I would have to be dropped off at the limits, and walk the balance of the way. And again, for the return leg of the trip.

Rather than describing further details, to reduce redundancy, I'm presenting the Forwards below. You'll get the details and context, by reading them and viewing their referenced videos. Where I caught them, I have corrected incidental typos.

To Secretary Buttigieg,

Garry Johnson is the relevant Director, in the email Forwarded below. (https://catchacats.com/contact-us/) In writing, the director himself, set this Trip.

It never occurred.

No one with CATS explained or apologized.

Aleithia Artemis,

Ditto, on never hearing back.

Bam: The very next day, the scheduled rides never occurred. But what did occur, during the very same wait time, for that CATS bus? One or more CATS as well as La Casa buses, zipped by. Once I realized what was happening, I whipped out a camera, and captured one of each, immortalized on film. If you watch the videos closely, you might be able to make out the 1633 part of the address, shown on the building. Attached are some photos taken upon earlier times, of this building.

You may view them at:

Mary Collins and driver Katharine still work for CATS. Darla Gonzales still controls La Casa Rides. CRSMA still refuses me services.

To Mayor Mike,

Never before, in CATS history, has a CATS vehicle stopped on the South Entrance to the library, to pick up or drop off riders. Until today. Mary Collins arranged (likely via personal; not City comms) to let at least 2 riders know their CATS ride would stop on the South, instead of West-facing, library entrance. But she made sure to with hold that info from me; forcing me to walk, for the return leg of the trip, shown in the Forward below.

She WILL lie, about this. CATS director Garry Johnson, like his predecessor, seems to hold no power over Mary's unauthorized decision making and tactics.

I'll Forward the scheduled Ride, for tomorrow, next.

Aleithia

Did Mary Collins have anything to do with the non-responsiveness of anyone within NM DOT? A cursory search found 89 records on a Mary Collins, many in Albuquerque.

Suspicious Timing:

Circa this same ride deprivation to Plateau time period, (Feb 22, 2024), there was suspicious timing, hearing back from ACP. Recall that it had returned a Confo webpage approving me, back earlier, on February 6, 2024. (See that Confo, separately.) That's the day before both deadlines, depending on your source of deadline info: both Feb. 7 and Feb. 8. So: on time. And approved.

But once CATS stiffed me on a ride (deprived of honest service), ACP sent me a, "You're Approved, but you applied too late" email. It also fraudulently tried to derail, to bait & switch me from ACP to LifeLine/LifeLink/SafeLink/whatever name du jour. It provided absolutely no support for its allegations; a glaring Omission.

That timing: pure coincidence?

[Banner:] Universal Service Administrative Company Affordable Connectivity Program

You can no longer enroll in the Affordable Connectivity Program.

What's happening?

Due to a lack of additional funding from Congress, the FCC must start taking steps to wind down the Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP). To prepare for the end of the ACP, the FCC has stopped accepting new enrollments into the ACP.
How can I still save on internet service?
You may still qualify for the Lifeline Program to save on internet service. Lifeline is another federal program that makes phone and internet service more affordable. If you qualify for Lifeline, you can get a monthly benefit of:
Up to $9.25 off the cost of phone, internet, or bundled services
Up to $34.25 off the cost of phone, internet or bundled services if you live on Tribal Lands

Ya no puede inscribirse en el Programa de Descuentos para Internet (ACP).

¿Qué pasó?

Debido a la falta de financiamiento adicional del Congreso, la FCC debe comenzar a tomar medidas para iniciar el cierre del Programa de Descuentos para Internet (ACP, por sus siglas en inglés). En preparación para el fin del ACP, la FCC ya no acepta nuevas inscripciones en el ACP.
¿Cómo puedo seguir ahorrando en el servicio de internet?
Aunque el ACP esté por finalizar, es posible que usted califique para el programa Lifeline, para ahorrar en el servicio de internet. Lifeline es otro programa federal que hace que los servicios telefónicos y de internet sean más asequibles. Si califica para Lifeline, puede obtener uno de los siguientes descuentos mensuales:
~~~~~~~~~~~~

Hasta $9.25 de descuento mensual en el costo telefónico, de internet o servicios combinados.
Hasta $34.25 de descuento mensual en el costo telefónico, de internet o servicios combinados, si vive en tierras Tribales.

Now: Why was the suggestion of Lifeline / whatever name du jour, a Bait & Switch Scam? Because the option there was for help with either inet or telephone service. But not both.

So I directly Forwarded this scheme to deprive of honest service, and to falsely accuse me of crime and impute disgrace, so as to allow the recipients to capture metadata, and see that indeed, it came from the furtive ACP weasels. That's a big deal: My former Yahoo email account had quit allowing inclusion of metadata in my Forwards, after I'd made certain criminal complaints.

Notice what's glaringly OMITTED? Any purportedly, hypothetically, theoretically, allegedly existent National Verification Letter. Nope: Nowhere to be found.

Nor any live human name, to be associated with ACP, LifeLine, or NVL. Let alone, any full sig-line.

Notice what's present? That's correct: A lie - that ACP didn't get my accurate application prior to the deadline for ACP; not LifeLine.

I also directly Forwarded to the Department of Justice (DOJ), so intake could see its metadata. Notice the FCC makes it almost impossible to directly Forward to any address where they bother to read it ("is monitored by the FCC consumer complaint center."). Notice also, what they glaringly Omit? The actual complaint sent in. So: They hide evidence.

Kindly get this Thread to the correct recipient(s).

If one goes to the link in the Forward below,
https://consumercomplaints.fcc.gov/hc/en-us

That webpage says;
"If your complaint is about an Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) billing or service issue, the FCC may serve your complaint on your provider."

Big deal. The FCC shows absolutely, positively, no option whatsoever at all, to report LYING. By the ACP; forget the provider, as they have to go through what the ACP demands.

The ACP sent a notification that I qualified for the ACP. But it LIED that it did not get my application prior to its deadline. Moreover, notice what was MISSING, in that, "Y*ou qualified*..." message:

Any purportedly, hypothetically, allegedly, theoretically existent National Verification Letter.

Also missing: Any live human name, let alone full sig-line.

That lying notification, to follow.

What had occurred a few days prior, on Feb. 19, 2024? I'd sent a message to another, and local, recipient. It included the following paragraphs.

I've had time to learn a bit, about the woes facing this wonderful woman you've described, who runs this place. I used to work for a title agency, and found out that essentially, the properties she has access to, all owe more than they are worth.

But there is another issue. Per the news article on her, she had a criminal history, and turned over a new leaf. Good for anyone who does that. However, the clientele she works with, also, all come from criminal pasts. Some, as repeat/habitual offenders.

I can easily imagine, that she and they, would feel seething rage, toward anyone who did not, yet entered this place. They would never stop to consider that things they have, and even take for granted having, that person, doesn't. i.e.: Family, extended relatives, including outside the area. Phone service. Auto. A bank account. Support, instead of slander and fraudulent funds laundered through church coffers, from certain church members. It would be easy for them to feel entitled to punish a non-criminal entering this place, and genuinely believe they are giving that person their come-uppance, for what they view as lying or putting on airs. Moreover, far too many of them, would than get away with framing that entrant, for their own crimes, so as to get more lenient treatment in the courts. All with this founder's blessing

One has to wonder if the local gossip grapevine then got some version of this message to CATS' Mary Collins, who then got revenge via depriving of honest services. (2-3 counts: at the Library, and then, both to and from Plateau.)

Back to the call taken over by Plateau's Trish:

I, I, -- unfortunate--, unfortunately, I don't have a way of finding you a ride to get here.

Trish – Trish, what's your last name?
Martinez.

So: a hispanic last name. No problems, with the previous Plateau folks, with non-hispanic last names. Trish intercepted their work, to impose herself, as the sole person at Plateau, with whom Complainant could interact. In other words: I could only bring the matter before its Causer. An anti-gringo racist, trying to double dip, (defraud of honest service) on my account.

Trish Martinez.
I'm a Customer Care Manager.
I'm sorry; What manager?
Customer Care Manager.
OK. Because I don't like being accused of fraud, when I had to do this, to circumvent fraud!
